

COMMANDER'S PALACE

“Don't Stand So Close to Me” Wine and Cheese Parties

Group Events

- Group purchase of tickets to an existing show
  - We add a custom slide during the show and host “shout-out” to the group
  - We recognize a few of your attendees during the dance/costume spotlight segment
  - Minimum purchase of 20 packages
- Group/corporate meeting self-hosted with video reel from previous show
  - The client is hosting a Zoom and wants to supply its attendees with wine and cheese packages as featured on a previous show
  - No technical assistance from Commander's Palace
  - Edited video reel of Dan interacting with the wine and cheese presenters: starting at $750
  - Wine and cheese packages fulfilled at Commander's Palace: minimum $105 per Tasting for Two, other packages and upgrades available
- Group/corporate meeting with attendees joining an existing show and a 30-minute private pre-show Zoom for their group
  - We set up and monitor a private Zoom meeting for them, which ends 15 minutes before our regular show
  - Unhosted: $500. Dan welcomes them in to their private Zoom, then leaves them alone to conduct their business. Dan pops in at the end of their Zoom to invite everyone over to the show.
  - Hosted: $1,500. Dan is present and functioning as host for their entire private Zoom.
- Group/corporate private Zoom event, produced and hosted by Commander's Palace
  - Price minimum of $10,000 for total group spend with Commander's Palace. Outside talent and production fees excluded.
  - Setup/hosting fee: $2,500
  - Wine and cheese packages fulfilled at Commander's Palace: minimum $105 per Tasting for Two, other packages and upgrades available
    - Price points for higher-end packages, per couple (these packages include nicer/older vintage wines and additional special food items--we can also include dinner)
